NAVAL ESTIMATES

BRITAIN TO SPEND MILLIONS ON STRENGTHENING CHAIN OF FORTIFICATIONS IN EAST

British Army Estimates

Show Increase Of £46,714,000

LONDON, Mar. 1 (T/Ocean)—The Army Estimates for 1939-40 show appropriations totalling £181,133,000 or £46,714,000 more than last year. After deducting interest rates, pensions, etc., there remain £148,000,000 or £41,000,000 more than last year for Army expenditures. Of this sum £86,000,000 are to be covered by loans as against £21,000,000 last year.

Although detailed statistics on the production of war materials are not available, the colossal development of British expenditures and production increases may be deducted from various budget items for war material as follows: 1936 about £9,000,000, 1937 about £25,000,000, 1938 roughly £38,000,000 and 1939 about £55,500,000.

DR. SMALLEY INJURED IN SMASH

WATERLOO ROAD COLLISION

Dr. J. T. Smalley, Medical Officer-in-Charge of the Kowloon Hospital, is lying in the Kowloon Hospital suffering from injury to his ribs, bruises and cuts on his face, as the result of a motor accident in the vicinity of the Hospital last night.

A woman, named Ho Wai-hing, was also removed to the Kowloon Hospital following the mishap and it was revealed, from inquiries made last night, that her main injury was a cut lower lip.

From the police it was learned that about 8 o'clock last night, Dr. Smalley was driving his car No. 652, along Waterloo Road when he was about to turn into Argyle Street his car came into collision with another motor vehicle No. 4420, which contained three men and a woman, all Chinese.

The collision, occurred in the centre of the road and both cars were badly damaged as a result of the impact.

The three male passengers of car No. 4420 escaped with only slight injuries.

Dr. Smalley and the woman passenger were removed to the Kowloon Hospital where it was learned last night, that the condition of both patients was not serious.

FOUR REFUGEE STUDENTS INVESTED 25 CENTS EACH ARE RICHER BY $240,000

All doubts and rumours regarding the huge Derby sweep prize of $240,038.40, which was won by ticket No. 404,324, when it drew Rose Elect in the Hongkong Derby on Monday, can now be dispelled.

"The Hongkong Daily Press" is able to announce exclusively that the ticket was held by a group of four refugee students who recently arrived in the Colony from the interior of China and who are at present studying at the University of Hongkong.

With very little means at their disposal, each "invested" 25 cents in a ticket, more as a lark than anything!

It is understood that they intend putting their money into a Trust fund, part of which will be used to further their education in Europe.

IMPROVEMENT AT ADEN

LONDON, Mar. 1 (T/Ocean)—Britain has decided to spend an additional sum of £5,000,000 on strengthening its chain of fortifications in the East formed by the naval bases at Singapore, Trincomalee and Aden. This according to the "Daily Express" constitutes one of the most interesting items contained in the Naval Estimates published on Tuesday.

Modernization of the defences at Singapore, which has already cost Britain a sum of £7,000,000 requires the additional expenditure of £2,600,000. This, however, does not exhaust Singapore's requirements and a further £1,000,000 is appropriated to complete the construction of military and naval airports in and around this naval base.

Trincomalee, on Ceylon, is to be fortified to such an extent as to make its defences second only to Singapore. Its airport, costing £500,000 is already under construction. This naval base has likewise been equipped with guns of the latest construction.

Military circles here have come to regard Trincomalee as impregnable. It commands sea and air routes on the Indian Ocean, Bay of Bengal and the Persian Gulf and possesses adequate reserves of ammunition and fuel to supply the requirements of a big fleet in the time of war. It is also to receive a radio station to be built at a cost of £180,000.

Improvement of fortifications at Aden, at the entrance to the Red Sea, will be carried out at an estimated cost of £600,000.

ROBBERY AND LOOTING IN CANTON

CANTON, Feb. 28 (Reuter)—In spite of the numbering and registration of every single Chinese in Canton, robberies, hold-ups and looting are still rampant in the city. Even foreigners shopping in the side streets, have recently been victimized.

The majority of robbers and looters go about armed, and clashes with Japanese military patrols are of almost daily occurrence.

Armed only with batons, the newly-formed Chinese police have so far not proved of much use in suppressing serious crimes.

CARDINALS BEGIN CONCLAVE

ROME, Mar. 1 (Reuter)—The first ceremony in connection with the Conclave of Cardinals took place this morning when 62 Cardinals, with the exception of three from America who arrived at Naples to-day, attended Mass. This afternoon the Cardinals will go into Conclave and they will be cut off from the outside world until the new Pope is elected.

LORDS SEEKING INFORMATION ON CHINA WAR

LONDON, Mar. 1 (Reuter)—At 4 p.m. to-day Lord Stotholt will ask the Government in the House of Lords for information regarding the China war with particular reference to events in South China; what steps they are taking to safeguard British trading rights and interests in Hongkong; what is the position regarding the Japanese invasion of Hainan; and London to-day the position in whether any joint policy with other interested Powers for bringing the struggle to an end is being pursued. A debate will follow.

FRESH TENSION BREAKS OUT IN TIENTSIN: JAPANESE BUILD EXTRA BRIDGE ACROSS PAI RIVER

LOAN PAYMENT

SHANGHAI, March 1 (Reuter)—It is authoritatively learned that although payment on the Anglo-German Loan of 1908 was made in January, and London to-day the position in whether any joint policy with other interested Powers for bringing the struggle to an end is being pursued. A debate will follow.

Complete Isolation Of Foreign Concessions Is Now Threatened

SHANGHAI, Mar. 1 (Reuter)—Tension similar to that between the Japanese authorities and the International Settlement in Shanghai which has only just eased has broken out again in Tientsin between the Japanese and the authorities of the British and French Concessions. It is learned in diplomatic circles here.

In addition to a live wire entanglement erected around both Concessions by the Japanese they have begun to build an extra bridge across the Pai River and a new road round the Concessions which threaten to cut them off and isolate them entirely.

It is stated that the Japanese have a new set of orders ready, although these have not yet been issued, for all Japanese citizens and Chinese with pro-Japanese leanings, to evacuate the two Concessions at a moment's notice.

The British, French and American authorities both in Tientsin and Shanghai are closely watching the situation.

A Central News message from Chungking on February 28 stated that the Japanese will institute a second blockade of the French and British Concessions there as a result of their dissatisfaction with the response of the Concessions to their demand for the suppression of alleged terrorist activities.

A conference of the puppet officials concerned was summoned by the Japanese on February 24 when the enforcement of the blockade was discussed. While the details of the conference were not divulged, it is understood that more stringent measures than in the last blockade will be adopted.

57 Terrorist Outrages In Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Mar. 1 (T/Ocean)—The Japanese Consular Police have issued a statement affirming that from January 1, 1938, to February 22, 1939, political terrorist outrages in Shanghai area totalled 57 of which 49 were aimed against Chinese, namely 35 in the International Settlement, five in the French Concession and eight outside the International zones. The Japanese statement renders the police in the International Settlement and French Concession responsible for 40 out of 41 outrages committed there.

Still higher figures were given in the Nanking Reformed Government's report of February 24 in which it was stated that upwards on a hundred of their officials had been killed since the formation of the Nanking Government.

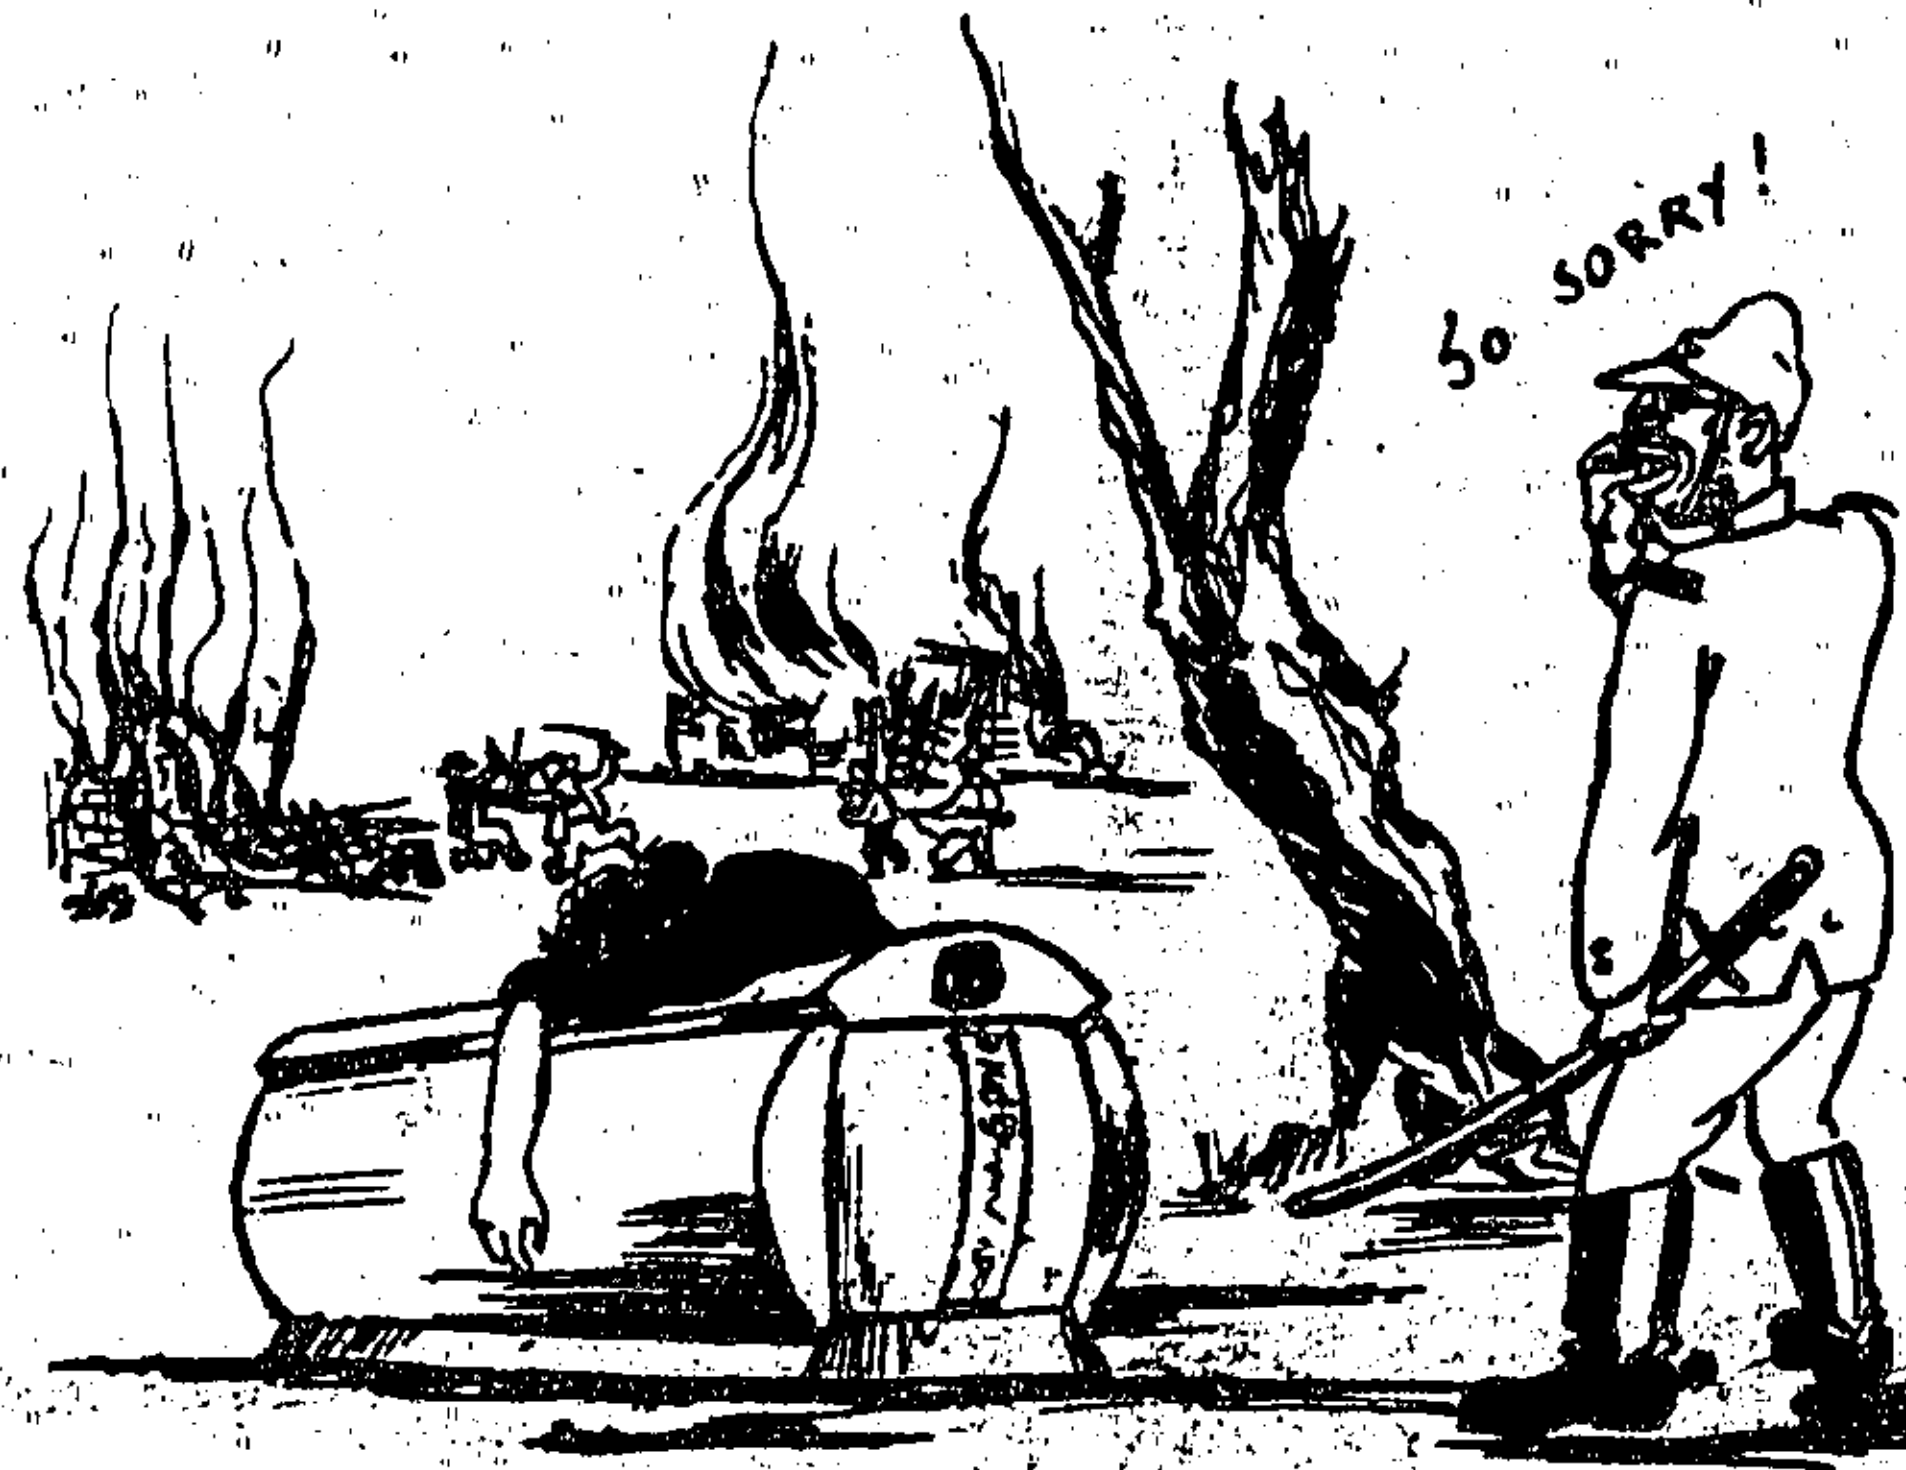

BANDIT RAID IN SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Mar. 1 (Reuter)—It is reported that armed bandits on Monday night raided various gambling houses at Kiaschow Beach, on the Yangtze, near Wusong, formerly a popular Shanghai summer resort now under Japanese occupation.

The bandits are stated to have made away with several thousand dollars. No casualties have been reported.

Dr. Eihiro Kawai, former Professor of the Economic Department in the Imperial University of Tokyo, has been indicted for violation of the Press law. His works are held by the authorities as injurious to public peace and order, says Reuter.

FAST SCORING AT H.K.C.C.

Services Draw With Volunteers

The cricket match between the United Services team and the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps XI, played at Chater Road yesterday, ended in a draw.

The Services took first lease of the wicket, and amassed a total of 228 runs for the loss of 8 wickets. A collapse looked probable as the first three wickets went cheaply, but Lt. Manners and Comm. Lees stayed for a fourth wicket partnership of 87. Manners' 69 runs included 10 boundaries and Lees 39 included 4 fours.

Marine Moores further increased the score with an undefeated knock for 43 runs, and Pte. Hatfield also carried his bat for 20. G. E. R. Divett took 4 wickets for 75 runs.

The Volunteers opened well. L. T. Ride and E. C. Fincher putting up 105 runs for the first wicket. E. Owen-Rughes scored a fast 59 runs, including a dozen fours. Ride's 53 included 9 boundaries, and Fincher's 56 included 8. Stumps were drawn with the score at 193 runs for the loss of 7 wickets. Sgt. Scragg took 5 wickets for 42 runs.

ROSE ELECT BRINGS OFF DOUBLE FOR EU STABLE

WINS CHAMPIONS THOUGH HOTLY CHALLENGED BY STABLEMATE

One Dead Heat: Daily Double's Small Return

FOURTH DAY OF ANNUAL MEETING

EMULATING THE FEAT ACCOMPLISHED BY SILKYLIGHT LAST YEAR OF BRINGING OFF THE CLASSIC DOUBLE, Mr. Eu Tong-sen's Rose Elect, ridden by Mr. C. Encarnacao, who brought it to victory in the Derby on Monday, won the Champions on the fourth day of the annual race meeting at Happy Valley yesterday.

This win was not as convincing as the previous one, however, when the "crack" pony set a new record for the Derby, as Desert Chief, with Mr. W. G. Poy up, so hard pressed its stable-companion in the home stretch that at one time a sensational upset appeared quite possible.

Another very good crowd turned out, but dividends on the whole were poor. There was a dead heat in the ninth race, the second leg of the Daily Double, between Celtic Star (Mr. F. Marshall), and Marksman (Mr. T. L. Wong), resulting in the Double paying only $7.80 for the Orange Boven—Celtic Star combination and $3.80 for Orange Boven—Marksman. The pool was $5,455.

The fact that only two starters lined up for the Consolation Stakes, the last event of the day, was responsible for a cash sweep first prize of $8,412.50, by far the best thus far in the meeting, with the exception, of course, of the special derby sweep.

Mr. C. Encarnacao, though, getting off the mark rather late, was the most successful jockey, with three wins. Of the owners, Mr. Eu Tong-sen had two wins and a second in seven starts.

Mr. P. Y. T. Wei won the Ladies' Purse, Miss Elizabeth Grayburn, daughter of Sir Vandeleur Grayburn, made the presentation, and was escorted in to lunch by Mr. Wei.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, made his fourth appearance at the Course.

LEIGHTON HILL STAKES
The day is starting well for fans. A keen finish between King Kong, (Mr. S. C. Liang), Bressay (Mr. H. J. A. Hearne) and Guinness Time (Mr. Pote-Hunt) found them finishing in that order, with short heads between the distances.

There were only 113 tickets on the winner and the pari-mutuel paid $75.80.

The field was bunched coming into the straight, with Guinness Time looking like the probable winner. But she was weakening and the other two got ahead.

Bressay paid $49.10.
GRAND STAND STAKES
Blue Express, a hot favourite, ridden by Mr. Charlie Encarnacao, won this event with four lengths to spare. Avon with Mr. Hearne up, was second. Mr. Galveston Bay (Mr. Wei up) was third by half a length.

All dividends were small.
LADIES' PURSE
A good field lined up for the Ladies' Purse, with Red Feather a favourite.

Mr. Peter Wei did not disappoint supporters and brought his mount home by 14 lengths, to pay $13.30. Mr. T. L. Wong on Humdrum Eve was a short head behind Moonlight View (Mr. H. C. Pih).

ADELAIDE STAKES
Carrying more than twice the number of tickets as there were on any other pony, Lancashire Chips won the Adelaide Stakes with something to spare, though Able Amazon (Mr. Marshall up) and Snowy River (Mr. Hearne) pressed it hard towards the end.

Mr. Marshall got through second by a neck.
The course is showing very clear signs of the three days' racing, and clouds of dust rise in places as the ponies gallop past.

JOCKEY CUP
One of the best all-round dividends of the meeting to date was paid out in this event for novices—and, incidentally it provided yet another good finish.

Liang up) was four lengths behind. This was the second leg of the Daily Double and the dividends were the almost unheard-of small sums of $7.80 on the Orange Boven—Celtic Star combination, and $3.80 on Orange Boven—Marksman. The pool was $5,455.

GRIFFINS CONSOLATION STAKES

Eve of Harvest, with Mr. F. Marshall up, made no mistake here, and got home by three lengths. Mr. D. Black on Lillibet was a length ahead of Peaceful View (Mr. H. C. Pih). Dividends were all small.

NORTHERN STAKES

Carrying a total of over 4,500 tickets, Bistre got home by two lengths here.

Mr. Chanson appeared to be in danger at two stages, but he was always in control.

Mr. Hearne on Dekko had to combat a strong challenge from Desert Star (Mr. Needa), and managed it by a length.

CONSOLATION STAKES

Only Just In Time (Mr. Pote-Hunt) and Honeymoon Eve (Mr. T. L. Wong) accepted for the last race of the day, which was won by the latter.

Mr. Wong was content to lie behind for three-quarters the distance, but there was no denying his final spurt. Smoothly and irresistibly he overhauled Mr. Pote-Hunt and eventually won by four lengths.

DICTATORS TO MEET

AXIS POLICY CONFERENCE

LONDON, Mar. 1 (Reuter).—A meeting between Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini, probably in North Italy, near Brenner, is unofficially forecast by Berlin correspondents. The reason is stated to be the need for a review of the axis policy in consequence of the recent changes in Europe.

Germany is credited with being disappointed at the results of Count Ciano's visit to Poland, which, apart from a fine bag when hunting yesterday, are thought in Berlin to be negligible. Political circles seem even less concerned over the anti-German demonstrations in Poland than with the belief that Count Ciano signally failed to secure any sort of assurance from M. Beck, the Polish Foreign Minister, in case of a war in which France is involved.

The effect of this circumstance on Italy's Mediterranean policy is held to justify a dictators' conference on general policy.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1 (Reuter).—Declaring that subversive literature was being distributed among the military forces, apparently by Communist organisations, the Acting Secretary for the Navy, Mr. Edison, asked Congress to enact legislation to punish such offenders.

Mr. Edison's Bill was introduced in the House of Representatives and provides for a maximum penalty of two years' imprisonment and a fine of $5,000.

PALESTINE SITUATION IS UNCHANGED

LONDON, Mar. 1 (Reuter).—It is understood that the situation between the British and Jewish delegations is unchanged as a result of this afternoon's informal talks.

The two informal talks to-day and yesterday failed to break the deadlock in the formal talks created by the Jewish decision that the British Government's suggestions afforded no basis for further negotiations.

It is understood that the adjournment of the informal talks for an indefinite period was to give the British delegation an opportunity to consider whether or not the suggestions may be modified and, if so, in what respect.

It is believed that the British delegation showed itself ready to make concessions on what is regarded in Jewish circles, minor points.

According to a prominent Jewish delegate, the postponement of the meetings did not mean a breakdown of the talks, but the cuts for the resumption of these talks with the British Government.

COMEDY HIT

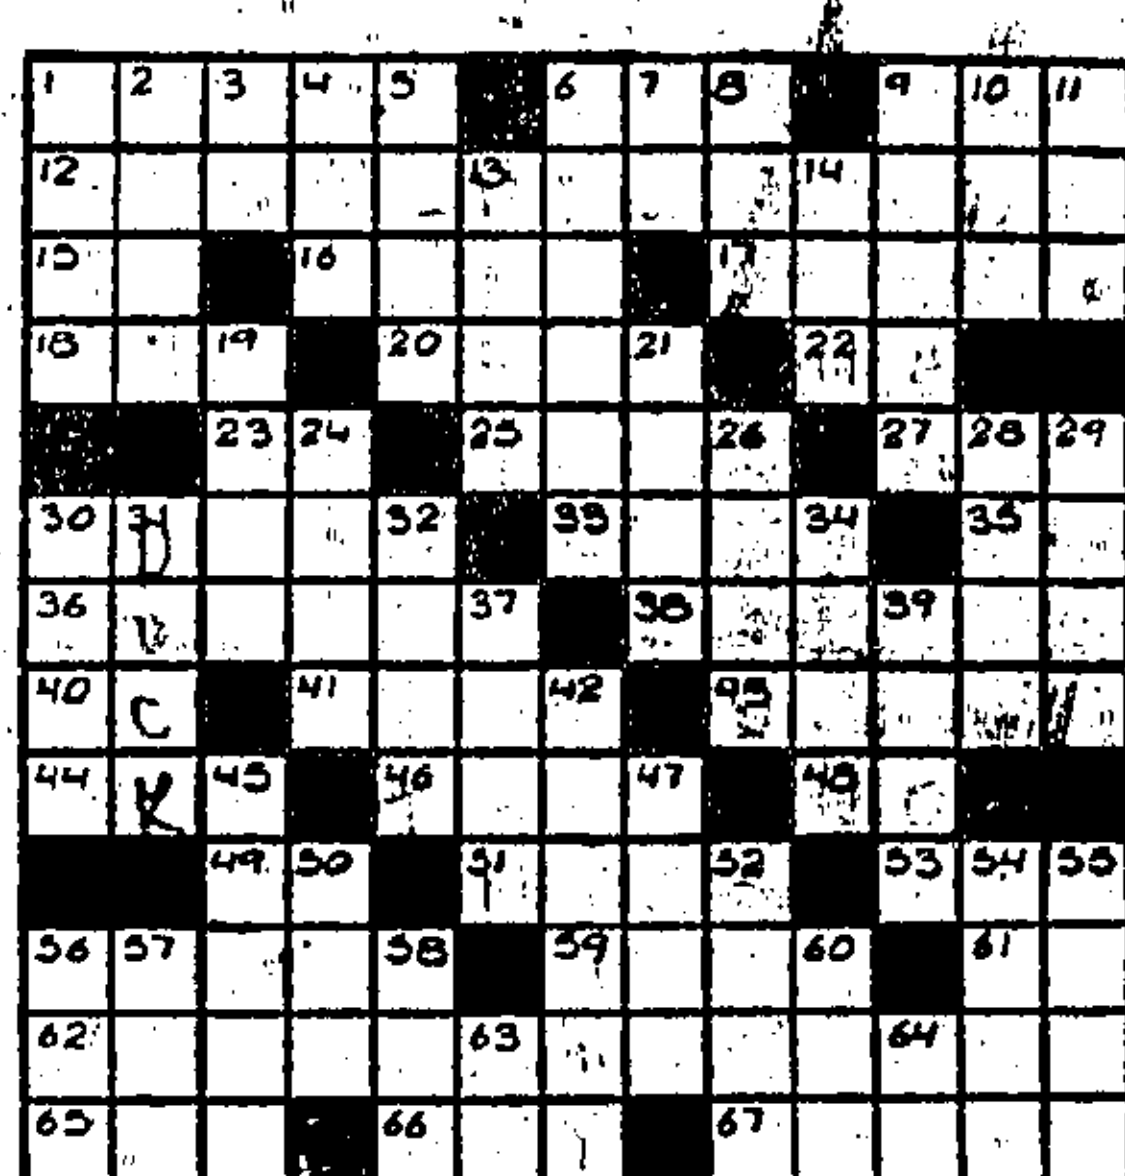

"There's Always A Woman," Columbia's Joan Blondell-Melvyn Douglas comedy at the Majestic Theatre, might have been sub-titled, "Thunder Over America," so loud have been the laughs, cheers and bravos that have greeted its exhumation. In the splendid supporting cast are such top-notch players as Mary Astor, Frances Drake, Jerome Cowan and Robert Paige, each of whom performs his appointed stint with polish and éclat. Needless to say, Blondell, Douglas & Co. are superb comedy purveyors, appearing to better advantage in "There's Always A Woman" than ever before. Alexander Hall directed the film.

Edward G. Robinson who has faced hundreds of audiences in his career on the stage and in public appearances between starring engagements, suffered stage fright when Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt visited the set where he was working recently. Robinson retired into a corner and had to be dragged out to meet the first lady, who had inquired for him. "Just nervous," he admitted very sheepishly later.

Arrangements have been completed with Warner Bros. by Prentice-Hall, text-book publisher, as a result of which the film's historical features will be made the basis of a series of books. "At present Hollywood is experiencing a current cycle of outdoor and western pictures and this has brought about a boom in the film city's armament mart—175,000 rounds of ammunition were used within two weeks.

ERROL FLYNN IN A FIST FIGHT

Errol Flynn, Irish motion picture actor, is known to use his fist frequently, but his latest encounter cost him the price of a costly dental bridge.

On the Jack Whitney estate in Pasadena, a cocktail party was in session. Alden Roark, star and film scenarist, kept following Flynn around, casting spurious remarks about him. Witnesses say that Flynn pretended not to hear them, but waited until all the guests had departed, then let fly several of the fists rights and lefts that he was noted for.

Flynn was showing no mercy for Roark when a man unknown to Flynn intercepted and struck him in the jaw, loosening his bridge. Flynn then really broke loose, and Roark hit the grass three times before the altercation could be stopped. Flynn remarked that this might be a lesson to those who were expecting to cast remarks about him, which were not true.

LADIES' DAY AT THE VALLEY

Chinese Fashions To The Fore

(BY "ROSETTE")

Yesterday was Ladies' Day at Happy Valley, when a large gathering of the fair sex, of all nationalities, gathered to watch Miss Elizabeth Grayburn, daughter of Sir Vandeleur Grayburn, Chief Manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, present the Ladies' Purse to Mr. Peter Wei, the successful jockey—and, incidentally, to watch the running of the Champions!

Chinese ladies were, as usual, in the majority, and they displayed a variety of fashions as new and as enchanting as if it was the first day of the annual race meeting instead of the fourth.

Mrs. S. N. Chau, wife of the popular race-horse owner, Dr. S. N. Chau, wore a brown camel hair coat over a printed brown frock of Chinese silk.

YOUNGER SET

Miss Rose Tan, President of the Hongkong Chinese Soldiers' Relief Association, looked charming in her printed floral padded gown—she was constantly seen in the company of a few members of the younger set, Miss Beatrice Law and the Misses Salina and Lulu Luk, who all wore an attractive shade of red.

Mrs. T. O. Tso was with Miss Ellen Choy, the latter spotting a blue frock, trimmed with red and white and a pair of red and blue platform heels.

Mrs. Gloria Pih and Mrs. Mary Mok looked very smart in their outfits of blue and brown respectively.

Miss Florence Kwok, in a padded gown of wine, with two foxes round her neck, always wore a happy smile—perhaps she struck a winner.

TO-DAY'S BEAUTY HINT

Remember to... pluck your eyebrows with care. So many people just seize the tweezers and pull a hair straight out in front of them. The result is a broken hair, and subsequently an ugly black stub in the pore.

The correct way is to hold the whole eyebrow firmly with one hand, lifting the skin back at the same time—pulling it taut.

Now take hold of the offending hair close to the root as possible, and pull the way it is growing, or lying. Not against the growth. You will find you remove the hair, complete with root follicle on the end.

SCHOLASTIC ASIDES

Two howlers from recent examination papers:—Dunstan... believed that no clergyman should marry, for, he said, no man can serve two masters.

The chief occupations of the Highlanders are lumbering, crofting, and grouching. The grouching is done by beaters.

FACE BRUSH

The latest beauty hint is to brush the face with a rubber or hair brush which will not scratch the skin. This treatment is claimed to be beneficial to the complexion, as it removes all traces of old make-up, blackheads, dead skin, and impurities, and make the blood circulate in healthy fashion.

SKIN VARIATIONS

A sensitive skin should be brushed with water softened by a little carbonate of soda, while a dry skin responds to an application of milk, or diluted with water. Tepid water, without soap, is suitable for the average complexion.

Molten, face, dip brush into the liquid, and begin by brushing at the temples and across the forehead. The chin, sides of the nose, and ears require a brisk scrub, and then the face should be brushed all over, not forgetting the closed eyelids. After carefully drying the face apply a good skin food, which should be removed before applying vanishing cream and powder.

Arms and hands, and especially rough elbows, also benefit from brushing.

EXHIBITION OF OIL PAINTING

By courtesy of the Hongkong Travel Association, an exhibition of the works of members of the Hongkong Working Artists' Guild is now being held at the bureau of the Association in Kowloon and the Star Ferry, Hongkong.

Among the newer exhibits are several examples of the work of Mr. Tsui Tung-pak, of Canton, who has studied art over a period of twenty years and has won distinctions in oil painting and water-colouring. Tsui Tung-pak lays proud claim to the enthusiastic patronage of Mr.

Sun Fo, who has acquired several of the artist's paintings.

Many other excellent examples of the work of members of the Guild are on view, and in addition thereto, several beautiful specimens of ancient Chinese pottery and images, etc.

Round About

A young Chinese man sat at a table inside the doorway of his shop. Opposite him on the wall hung a mirror, on the table there was a drawing board, charcoal and a piece of gauze.

From time to time the man stared into the mirror, now and then he assumed horrible, then amusing and ridiculous facial expressions. After this procedure he would add a stroke or two, to the paper on his board.

A friend entered the shop, quickly he looked at the seated man, the drawing board and the mirror. "What are you drawing," he asked?

In a grave manner the Chinese replied; "This will be a portrait of my brother, living in San Francisco; he will be shocked and pleased!"

From Our Own Correspondent
MACAO, Feb. 28.—Portuguese shore batteries greeted H. M. S. Falmouth when she entered the Macao outer port this morning with the British C-in-C, Vice-Admiral Sir Percy Noble, K.C.B., on board on an official visit to this Colony. Lady Noble accompanied her husband.

Sir Percy Noble was welcomed by Comm. S. Vieira (Harbour Master), Capt. Macedo Pinto (A.D.C. to H.E. the Governor) and Lt. Albano Oliveira, and escorted to shore, accompanied by his A.D.C., Flag-Lt. Comm. P. E. Matheson.

The British Admiral inspected a guard of honour and then drove to Government House for luncheon, given in his honour by H. E. the Governor of Macao, Dr. Arthur Tamagnini de Sousa Barbosa.

Among those attending were Mr. F. J. Geillon (H.B.M. Consul in Macao), Capt. J. Coelho (commander of N.R.P. Goncalves Zanco), Comm. S. Vieira, Maj. A. Lello (Chief of Staff), Dr. L. M. Alves (Colonial Secretary), Dr. G. Carvalho (Private Secretary), Lt. Albano Oliveira, Lt. Freitas Ribeiro, Lt. A. Pereira, Lt. Macedo Pinto, Lt. B. Sousa, and ladies.

Later in the afternoon, Sir Percy was host at a cocktail party which was attended by all leading officials of the Colony. Another such gathering took place on Penha Hill in the evening when Mr. F. J. Geillon gave a dinner to Sir Percy Noble in his residence, the Skyline.

RURAL WELFARE CENTRE AT SHUMCHUN

Many distinguished personages are the patrons of the Shumchun Rural Welfare Centre. They are Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau, Hon. Sir Shou-shan Chow, Prof. W. I. Gerrard, Bishop Hall, Mr. Hsu Shih-ying, Mr. Kan Tong-po, Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall, Hon. Dr. Li Shu-fan, Mr. Li Shing-kue, Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, Mr. Tang Shu-kin and Mr. Val-torta.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee last month the officers of the Committee were elected as follows:—Chairman, Mr. Percy Chen; Vice-Chairmen, Lum Ming-fan, Dr. C. Y. Wu; Hon. Treasurer, J. M. Tan; Secretary, K. S. Lo; Members, Auyang Manly, Walter Hahming Chen, P. K. Chu, Fung Kwok-wa, Prof. Richard Lam, Lau Tak-po, H. K. Lee, and H. S. Mok.

DONATIONS
The following donations have been acknowledged to date:
From the British Fund for Relief of Distress in China, $5,000, Mr. D. C. Edmondson, $100, Emergency Refugee Council, $500 (N.C.).

The work of the Centre is to minimise the damage and losses suffered by farmers as a result of raids and evasions. In furtherance of this a meeting will be called of the elders of the villages in the Shumchun area to decide on future steps.

The Centre is in need of lots of help for the farmers, who are being impoverished by the continual raids and evasions. Every time they have to leave their homes, looters come and steal their implements and reserves. The fields are still unploughed waiting for rain.

At least in this area the Centre is trying its best to avoid a semi-famine situation among the farmers.

Jewellery valued at $1,526 was stolen from Mr. K. E. Mogra at the Yin Tin restaurant, according to a police report.

HEAVY FINE IN OPIUM CASE

For keeping an opium divan in Wellington Street and being in possession of 14 taels of opium, Lo Yau, 48, was fined $150, or in default one month's hard labour on the first charge and $700, or three months, on the second charge, by Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday.

MISSING OIL: ALLEGED LARCENY IN GODOWN

Two boatwomen and two tallymen appeared before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday on a charge of larceny of 1,492 lbs. of wood oil, which they are alleged to have tapped from a large cargo of oil in drums which were being transported from the Fu Wah Godown, Windsor Street, Hunghom, to the Yachyo Typhoon Shelter.

Mr. F. E. Nash appeared for the Fu Wah Company, and Mr. M. A. da Silva for the defendants.

Opening his case, Mr. Nash stated that on Feb. 7 two tallymen arrived at the godown from the 'Hok Nee' Company, which firm had contracted to transport 889 drums of oil, of weight about 450 to 460 lbs. each. The two firms had mutually agreed to post one guard on each side of the tanks that would be used. The prosecution would produce witnesses to testify that a quantity of the oil was missing.

The first witness called was Cheng Ting-yong, managing partner of the Hok Nee Firm. Witness stated that on Feb. 8 he had received a telephone call regarding the missing oil, and he had sent a man named Mak Man-hing to investigate. The latter had reported that a large quantity of the oil was missing, and the Fu Wah Company wanted witness to assume the responsibility for this. There were marks on the taps that suggested that a file was used. Witness had sent another man named Lei King-chi to check up on this, instructing him to make a report of the matter to the Water Police Station.

ALL DRUMS WEIGHED
Choi Yau-ching, the second witness called, stated that all the drums of oil had been weighed before being stored in the godown. On Feb. 7 he had given over charge of the 889 drums to a tallyman, Li Choi, of the Hok Nee Company. The drums were delivered to the tallyman in the same condition in which they were received at the godown in November and December last year.

Answering questions put to him by Mr. da Silva, witness stated that the drums were of uniform size and weighed 50 lbs. apiece empty. They contained each from 450 to 460 lbs. of oil. The weight of the drum and contents was printed on each drum in Chinese ink, in English characters. There was nothing stored in the godown but oil, and though there were thousands of drums of oil stored, all the 889 drums delivered came from two particular lots.

Evidence was also taken from Lei Kam, tallyman of the Hok Nee Company, after which further hearing was adjourned to Friday, March 10, at 11.30 p.m.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF MAHJONG SET

On a charge of larceny by trick of a set of mahjong, valued at $15, from Tsui Wing-wu, searkeeper, 11 Hill Road, on Feb. 28, Leung Kong, 22, unemployed, was remanded for a week by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday.

Inspector W. Maiz prosecuted. On the day in question, at about 11 a.m. defendant is alleged to have ordered a set of mahjong from the complainant to be delivered to No. 7 South Lane on hire. Tsang Ming, complainant's foki is stated to have handed the set of mahjong to a friend of defendant, who waited outside the house. After receiving the set, the foki was instructed to change the table-top, which was said to be wet. On his return, the accomplice was alleged to have disappeared with the mahjong set. The set had not been recovered.

COLONY HEALTH RETURNS

Twenty-eight cases of tuberculosis were notified to the Health Department on Tuesday, in addition to nine cases of measles, four cases each of small-pox and chicken-pox, two cases of cerebrospinal fever and one case each of enteric fever and dysentery.

SUMMONS FOR WAGES

Mr. Burnett, of No. 188, Nathan Road, appeared on a summons before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday, a servant formerly in his employ, Lal Po, alleging that he had not been paid $4.48 in wages due and that he had been dismissed without being given a month's notice or a month's wages in lieu of notice.

Mr. Burnett stated that he had offered to pay $5 to the complainant, but the latter had thrown the money back at him. Complainant had been given notice on February 1.

Hearing of the case was fixed for noon on March 6.

ASSAULT ALLEGED

Lai Kwan-yam, of No. 12, Peace Avenue, was summoned before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday, Mrs. Lau Kwan-yam, of No. 591, Nathan Road, alleging assault.

Mr. A. S. K. Lau, appearing for Mrs. Lau, asked for an adjournment of one week, and also that the defendant be warned against going to visit the complainant, as it was alleged he was in the habit of visiting the complainant and using threatening language. The adjournment was granted, and the warning given.

TEACHERS WANT NEW KIND OF VARSITY DEGREE

A call for a new kind of university degree—a degree in Education—at all universities, is made in a memorandum on the training of teachers issued by the British Training College Association and the Council of Principals. This is of particular interest to Hongkong in view of the fact the Government is understood to be contemplating the establishment of a Teachers' Training School in the near future. H.E. the Governor is known to be especially interested in the scheme, which has everything to commend it.

The question is raised whether the present types of degree course are really of value to the elementary school teacher, and it is maintained that "the needs of the student whose development is best achieved through aesthetic subjects are still given insufficient prominence in university courses."

CHANGE OF TREATMENT
The university degree course, the memorandum states, should include both "pedagogical studies," and also academic subjects, but not treated in the same way as in existing degree courses.

A course in preparation for such a degree would be free from the disadvantage of the one-year course, which now completes the work of the four-year student. He may enter on a one-year course, with very little knowledge of children, and very often with an idea that teaching consists in exposition, generally by means of lectures. One year is not always enough to enable the student to come to grips with the problems of education.

Manchester University, it is pointed out, has a Faculty of Education, with distinctive degrees for intending teachers. But only post-graduate students, who have already taken a degree in some other subject, can take its course. The establishment of degree courses in domestic science at King's College of Household Science, London, and Bristol University, is cited as a precedent for degree courses in subjects not wholly academic in character.

SPORT OF KINGS

ATTENDANCE at the annual race meeting of the Hongkong Jockey Club this year has far exceeded all previous records and the number present at the Race Course on Monday, Derby Day, was 'truly amazing. Luckily, the weather has held out exceedingly well but, with the lack of any decent rainfall since October last, the going was exceptionally hard and dusty was, as expected, plentiful.

THE DERBY did not provide the thrills expected of it: as a matter of fact, the race was keenly disappointing in spite of the fact that C. Encarnacao brought Mr. Eu Tong-sen's pony Rose Electromagnet past the winning post many lengths ahead of Navylight in the record-breaking time of two minutes 55.2 seconds. Mr. Eu Tong-sen is to be congratulated upon achieving his ambition of winning the Blue Riband of local racing and adding his name to the very few Chinese who have attained the honour: he is, we believe, the fourth Chinese owner to win the Derby. C. Encarnacao rode a wonderful race and fully came up to the expectations of his supporters.

WHO THE LUCKY WINNER of the immense prize of $240,038.40 was is still a secret though it is whispered that the possessor was a Chinese lady, who may be expected, if the report is correct, to give away a large portion of her winnings to charitable institutions and to refugee relief work in the Colony and in China. In this connection, it would not be unreasonable to suggest that the present system be modified along the lines of the Shanghai Race Club which has adopted the system of dividing the sweeps into Class "A" and Class "B". This affords the public a slightly better chance to win a fairly decent sum of money and would work no hardship on the persons who would, in the normal course, win huge prizes such as those won on Monday.

DOUBLES were disappointing as were the poor fields. It has been suggested that, in case there are less than five entries in a race, that event should be declared null and void.

This is easily understandable

Hello & Goodbye

(BY A. W. HYER)

THERE ARE A FEW HORSES still running out at Happy Valley according to many residents and visitors; however, this morning Hongkong's population are back into harness. Gone, but not forgotten, are the hectic days of the opening of the race season.

North and south, visitors will travel home, some wiser and slim of purse, others gay in their knowledge of a system on "How to beat the Races!"

But aside from all this "track talk" the coming week-end travel catalogue is creating quite a furore.

Pan American Airways

TO-MORROW MORNING, between 11 and 12 noon, the largest flying boat in the world will roar over Hongkong and land on the waters of the bay at Kai Tak. The new Pan American Airways Boeing Clipper (314), under the command of Captain W. A. Cluette, arrives on her "shakedown" flight from San Francisco and Manila. There will be mail and air-express aboard but no paying passengers.

Mr. A. J. R. Moss, Airport Superintendent, in conjunction with Traffic Manager of P.A.A., Mr. Phil Delany, have made arrangements for the handling of the public visiting Kai Tak on the arrival of the clipper.

Sorry to say no one, but holders of invitations, will be admitted on board the flying boat. This arrangement is necessary due to the short stay and mechanical servicing work by the engineers. However, Mr. Delany wants everyone so desiring to pay a visit of inspection to the new boat. And if you will call at Pan American Airways office a pass will be issued for this pleasure on the next flight March 22.

His Excellency the Governor and his party will inspect the Clipper at 2.45 o'clock on Friday afternoon. The Boeing Clipper departs Kai Tak the following morning (Saturday) with mail and express for Manila and San Francisco.

Sea Dragon

THERE IS MANY a slip—and so it has been for Richard Halliburton, author and world traveller—who has been gnashing his teeth and muttering under his breath during the last two months. Now, however at Bailey's Shipbuilding Yard wharves rides the "Sea Dragon," a fin keel has been added to the hull, rigging strengthened and some caulking completed. There are 14 crew members, everything is set for a departure to-morrow, for San Francisco. And if they do not "get the breaks" that Mr. Halliburton will just about give up the ghost!

Imperial Airways

TUESDAY MORNING at 7 and 7.30 o'clock, respectively, Captain I. A. Dykes and Captain Joe Davis went flying off to Bangkok in the "Denebola" and "Delia."

The small, vivacious little gentleman, Mr. Aw Boon-haw, of Tiger Balm, went flying down to Bangkok. During the past several weeks he has been visiting in our city. Accompanying the busy person were Mr. Wong Pin to Singapore, and Mr. Mah Liap-koon to Bangkok.

Mr. A. J. Costello, from San Francisco and a Clipper arrival, continued on his world tour via Imperial Airways to Bangkok where he transships to K. L. M.

Early this week Imperial Airways Lieut.-Commander A. D. S. Murray departed for Chungking and Kuming via C. N. A. C. from Hong Kong. The survey flights and new service of Imperial Airways which will soon begin between India and China have kept this executive a busy traveller.

for, the more ponies there are in a race, the more exciting it is and the better racing one witnesses.

RECORD TIMES were made in a few of the races and both ponies and jockeys showed excellent form. It was unfortunate that there should have been spills and that the meeting should have been marred by a couple of accidents but these are things which are unavoidable and which occur even in the best of racing.

ALL IN ALL, the Jockey Club has provided the Colony with good racing and those responsible will be gratified to know that their efforts have not been in vain.

THEN THIS DUTCH vessel came into our harbour on Sunday we must have been in a trance and missed her completely, but here are a few visitors from the North who are about our city.

Mr. F. B. S. Creasy, of Patons and Baldwins, Mr. D. McLorn, Director-General of the Postal Remittances and Savings Bank, Shanghai, and Mr. W. L. Miller, of the Chinese National Wireless Telegraph Co. Three important and interesting travellers and we had to miss them!

South-bound

TUESDAY at 10 a.m. the a.s. Tjisadane left pier No. 1 and sailed down the bay for Manila and southern ports.

Mr. F. L. Higgs was spotted surrounded by a few of the Colony's aviation fraternity, all down to say "hello" and "how are you?" Arriving from Haiphong this gentleman paid a short call and continued on to Manila for a week's business visit, then returning to Hongkong and Indo-China.

A very nice American visitor from Seattle, Miss O. Boeske, spent several days visiting our Colony. This was her second visit here and on this occasion she truly saw and enjoyed our city. "Previously," she stated, "I was in a lonely place and know no one, consequently, I had little to say for your city in comparison with other world ports. However, the past week I was at the Helena May Institute and have a changed viewpoint." Evidently, Hongkong can be a lonely place for visitors and this certainly gives a boost to one of our institutions.

m. v. Canton

WEDNESDAY, 10.30 a.m. there came the P. and O.'s proud beauty, the m. v. Canton, from London and southern ports.

Extremely charming and quite chic was Mrs. E. M. Brind attired in a grey flannel suit and a string of pearls about her neck, on her arrival from London. Accompanying her mother was Miss J. C. Brind equally attractive in a tailored linen suit and brown accessories. This handsome young lady and Mrs. Brind were greeted by Captain E. J. P. Brind in command of H.M.S. Birmingham, and everyone was happy and gay at the reunion.

On a yearly business visit there arrived Mr. S. Phelps from London. This gentleman has almost lost count of the year's calls to the Colony and practically knows the ocean route from Deasway.

FEBRUARY'S DRY WEATHER

Very dry weather was experienced during February, except for a slight fall on the 1st, no measurable amount of rain was recorded during the month. The weather was also comparatively warm and sunny; temperature was consistently above normal throughout the month, and only two days were completely sunless.

The mean temperature for the month was 62.7°F, which is 3.7° above normal. A maximum of 76.1° was recorded on the 25th, and a minimum of 53.9° on the 4th and 5th. The mean relative humidity was 79 per cent, which is normal.

Sunshine amounted to 135 hours, which is 41 hours above normal. The total rainfall was only 0.02 inch, all of which fell on the 1st. The normal rainfall for the month is 1.79 inches, and this was the driest February since 1918.

The maximum wind velocity in a gust was 40 m.p.h. at 1 a.m. on the 8th.

INSPIRING ADDRESS

An inspiring address on "Christ and Cross" was delivered to a large gathering of young people at St. Paul's Church yesterday evening by Prof. S. Lautenschlager, of Lingnan University.

The speaker dwelt upon the death of Christ and the true meaning of the Cross to the Christian. Jesus' death, he said, was a struggle against evil and wrong. By his death, the Cross, which had been the symbol of cruelty, became one of love and sacrifice.

PREMIER'S REPLY TO LABOUR ATTACK FRANCO RECOGNITION JUSTIFIED

Censure Motion Lost After Long Debate

LONDON, MARCH 1 (REUTERS).—THE MOTION OF CENSURE WHICH WAS MOVED BY THE LABOUR PARTY YESTERDAY IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS on the subject of the recognition of the Franco Administration by the British Government was defeated by 344 votes to 137 after a prolonged debate.

Major C. R. Attlee, Leader of the Opposition, questioned the authority of the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain to act independently in the matter of the recognition and again took the Premier to task for not acquainting the House earlier of the decision to recognise Gen. Franco.

It will be recalled that on February 27 Mr. Chamberlain objected to being cross-examined on the subject.

Mr. Chamberlain: "I said 'without notice'."

Continuing, Major Attlee said that Mr. Chamberlain's attempt to justify his action was "half truths, which was worse than lies." The Prime Minister had tried to make out that the part of Spain under the control of the Republican Government was very weak, but Major Attlee claimed that there was an effective government with an effective governmentary of half a million in Republican Spain. These were not conditions justifying the recognition of Gen. Franco.

Major Attlee said that Mr. Chamberlain had done more than any man to show his contempt for international law. He wanted to know what assurance the Prime Minister had got that, when he recognised Gen. Franco, he would not at once join the Berlin-Rome Axis.

BITTER PERSONAL ATTACKS

Mr. Chamberlain, replying, said that it must be a long time since he had listened to such a series of bitter personal attacks upon a single individual. He reminded the House that they were debating a subject of very great importance and it did not seem to him to be in accordance with their dignity that the discussion should degenerate into a personal squabble.

Referring to Major Attlee's accusations yesterday, Mr. Chamberlain denied that he had misled the House in order to avoid a debate. Major Attlee had plainly implied that M. Daladier had told the French Chamber on February 24 that the British Government had reached a decision on the recognition of Gen. Franco. Mr. Chamberlain claimed that Major Attlee's quotation of M. Daladier, when examined, did not bear that out.

After reading the actual quotation, the Prime Minister said: "It is not a decision, but an expression of opinion. We had two desires: we considered that the moment had come when recognition ought to be afforded Gen. Franco, but we wished to keep in close harmony with the French Government, and we were not prepared to grant recognition until we were satisfied that the French were in agreement on that subject."

They could not be certain of the French attitude until Friday and he was perfectly correct in saying that the final decision could not be taken until Friday had passed—it was, in fact, taken over the weekend.

SISTER DEMOCRACY'S VIEW

Dealing with the last portion of the Motion of Censure, namely, that the recognition of Gen. Franco had destroyed confidence and the good faith in Britain by all Democratic countries, Mr. Chamberlain said that he found difficulty in believing that, seeing that "our greater sister Democracy, France, takes exactly the same view and has taken exactly the same action."

Dealing with the point that the Government's action was a gross breach of international tradition, the Prime Minister said that it was not as though this was the first action of its kind. Precedence had already been created and Mr. Chamberlain then went on to quote lengthily from the works on international law with a view to showing that the present action of the Government was justified, in accordance with practice.

"Did Gen. Franco, after the fall of Barcelona and after he got possession of Catalonia, put himself in a position which one might call a reasonable expectancy of permanent superiority and, on the other hand, can the Republican Government any longer be considered the legal government of the country? The answers to those questions were pretty plain."

Could the Republican Government command sufficiency either of munitions or food to be able to carry on the struggle for any prolonged period or with a reasonable chance of ultimate success? As for the Republican Government, nobody could say how much of it remained or where it was to be found. The President had resigned, some of the Ministers were in France and some in Spain and it was doubtful whether that Government could be considered a legal power.

NOT A BREACH OF TRADITIONS

"I say that, so far from our action having been a gross breach of international traditions, it would have been such a breach if we had refused to recognise Gen. Franco," declared the Premier.

Continuing, Mr. Chamberlain said that if they had withheld the recognition of Gen. Franco it would not have helped the Republican Government or the people of Madrid; it would have embittered their relations with the new government and destroyed any influence they might have with Gen. Franco. Mr. Chamberlain added that Gen. Franco had given the British Government assurances against general reprisals for strictly political offences.

Mr. Chamberlain then went on to read a message he had received from Gen. Franco embodying these assurances and adding: "Spain is not disposed to accept any foreign intervention that might impair her dignity or infringe her sovereignty."

Mr. Chamberlain said that members on the other side had spoken with great positiveness and assurance about massacres and murders, which they alleged, had been committed by Gen. Franco's forces, but they never said anything about similar instances on the other side.

"It would not be reasonable to ask Gen. Franco beforehand for a complete amnesty, which would include men who are guilty of the most horrible crimes," said the Prime Minister.

A FORMAL ACT

After mentioning that, up to the present, nineteen countries had recognised Gen. Franco, Mr. Chamberlain said that the recognition was a formal act bringing relations between Britain and the Franco Government into accord and reality.

"What is wanted now is a cessation of hostilities (cheers). Anything the British Government can do to help to bring about an armistice in which some discussion can take place between representatives of both sides, we should gladly do. I trust that not many days will pass before we hear that such an armistice has been agreed upon. Once the fighting comes to an end, we hope that all Spaniards may see fit to repair the destruction that has taken place and build up a prosperous and happy country which will be worthy of their own glorious past," concluded Mr. Chamberlain.

MR. EDEN'S SUPPORT

Intervening later in the debate, Mr. Anthony Eden brought his support to Government's decision to grant recognition to Gen. Franco's Government, but he urged that the British and French Governments should exert themselves to the utmost to see, if possible, that the closing stages of the Spanish Civil War should not see standard projecting from the belated repetition of the tragic sufferings

SPLENDID SHOW AT QUEEN'S

"Debutante Goes To Town"

GRACE CHENG EXCELS

James Snowden, admirably played by Mr. Herbert Tong, is the hen-pecked husband of the social climber who apparently was a female "Bluebeard." His mother, another of the species of hen-peckers, is the deus ex machina of the play. These parts, played by the two sisters Miss Jeanette Ma and Miss Katie Ma, well earned the applause of the crowded house early in the performance, and the talent of these young ladies with the humour they introduced into their roles kept the audience in a high state of merriment.

"Debutante Goes to Town" is a comedy in four acts. Popular songs and admirably executed dances are interspersed with the text to make the whole an enjoyable entertainment.

The story is one of socialites and racketeers and "molls" in New York. The debutante, Lorraine, is played by a newcomer to the Hongkong theatre, Miss Grace Cheng, the charming daughter of Major T. Y. Chang, formerly Police Commissioner at Shumchun, acts and sings delightfully. She is being forced into a marriage by her step-mother, Mrs. Snowden, with the Count Odene Du Pont, played by Mr. Fred Jung.

ATTRACTIVE CHORUS

A convincing "Granny" in the person of Miss Katie Ma, advises her to run away to New York where she signs a contract to appear at a night club in which there is plenty of joyous fun for all including the attractive chorus of the pick of Hongkong's younger set. They were the Misses Elsie Wong, Florence Lam, Anita Ma, Ann Thui, Elsie Law, Salina Luk, Beatrice Law, Lily Chan, Mary Chan, Priscilla Ho, Patricia Ho, Dora Chow, Madeline Foo, Maria Wong, Pansy Ho, Jessie Chan and Julianne Lau.

Tiny Bo-Wah Ma, besides dancing and singing, gave a fine piece of acting in the last scene where she quarrels with the tough racketeer, George Chow, of whom she is jealous.

Among the numbers which drew applause were the ballet dances of Miss Gloria Yee and corps de ballet, trained by Miss Daisy O'Keefe; Mr. Hugh Chen, whose tap technique was almost professional, and the accordion solo by Art Carneiro. Mr. Gordon Lee and Mr. Wilfred Seto, as well as the "lady" who sang "My Own," contributed to the happy entertainment.

The worthiness of the cause and the good work that is being done by the Chinese Youth Medical Association in maintaining several units with the Chinese fighting forces was recognized by the large audience that watched the initial performance.

And, in addition to helping the charitable cause, excellent fun was had by all. Really a show worth seeing.

1 qt. sauerkraut
Salt and pepper to taste
1 cup boiling water.

TEA-TIME SPREADS

Cakes, tarts and sweet spreads are the order of the family tea-table. For a change, the family and their guests will like this lemon curd filling. It has a refreshing tang, which is very popular.

Ingredients: ½ lb. caster sugar, 2oz. fresh butter, 2 lemons, 2 large eggs.

Grate the lemon rind very finely, first washing the fruit. Put the beaten eggs, lemon rind, juice, butter and sugar into the top of a double saucepan, or a stone jar standing in a deep saucepan of water.

Stir until the sugar has dissolved and the mixture is thick. The mixture must not be allowed to boil or it will become curdled.

When thick, strain into small dry pots and cover immediately.

Lemon curd should be made in small quantities and should be kept only for a short time.

APPLE CREAM

An unusual but flavoursome curd is made with apple.

Ingredients: ½ lb. sharp apples, 6oz. sugar, 1 gill water, 1 egg, a pinch of ground cloves, 2oz. butter, juice of half a lemon.

Peel, core and slice the apples and simmer gently in the water and lemon juice until thoroughly cooked.

Beat until very smooth add the sugar, beaten egg and butter, blend thoroughly and stir over a gentle heat until the egg thickens, on no account allowing it to boil.

Add the pinch of ground cloves, hot and cover immediately.

Apple curd also should be made in small quantities, as it has not the keeping qualities of jam or jelly.

LEMON CHEESE

Another recipe for lemon curd. Ingredients: 1 teaspoonful of syrup, 1 lemon, 1 teaspoonful milk, 1 pint packet custard powder, 1 heaped teaspoonful of egg powder.

Make the custard with the milk, add the syrup and finely grated lemon rind, and juice. Put into a saucepan, stirring all the time until boiling, then stir in the egg powder and stir until the effervescence has subsided. Allow to cool, then put into small jars, tie down and cover tightly.

ORANGE FLAVOUR

This will be a popular filling. Ingredients: 2 large juicy oranges, ½ lb. caster sugar, 2oz. fresh butter, 2 large eggs.

Grate the rind of one orange finely and beat the eggs. Put eggs, orange rind, juice of both oranges and sugar into the top of a double saucepan, add the fresh butter and stir over a gentle heat until the mixture thickens. The curd must not be allowed to boil or it will curdle. When the mixture is thick, strain into small pots, tie down and cover immediately.

Sprinkle the brisket with salt and pepper and allow to stand for at least an hour. Melt the fat in a Dutch oven or deep kettle and add the onion. Cook until soft, add the sauerkraut and cook for 5 minutes. Add the brisket and boiling water and cook over low heat until the brisket is tender.

SAUERBRATEN WITH POTATO DUMPLINGS

4 pounds beef for pot roast
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. pepper
1 clove garlic
2 cloves
1 sliced onion
Vinegar and water, 3 parts water to 1 part vinegar
1 bay leaf
8 peppercorns.
Chop a clove of garlic very fine with salt, pepper and beef suet cut from the meat. Make 2 deep incisions on each side of the meat, pushing in some of the garlic mixture. Prepare a marinade of the vinegar and water in sufficient quantity to cover the meat.

Add the seasonings and place the meat in this marinade, allowing it to stand in a cold place for 48 hours, turning at least 4 times. When ready to cook, brown the meat on all sides in hot fat. Add 1 cup of the marinade in which the meat was soaked. Cook slowly for 3½ hours. Add more of the marinade if necessary. Thicken the gravy with flour—1 tablespoon flour to 1 cup of gravy liquor, or with ginger snaps that have been broken up. Serve with potato dumplings.

POTATO DUMPLINGS

Boil 6 potatoes in jackets. Peel put through ricer. Mix on pastry board with 1½ teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 egg, dash nutmeg, dash cloves. Add 1 cup flour. Shape in long roll, cut off in 1½-inch lengths. Roll in finger lengths, drop in boiling water, cook 10 minutes. Drain, pour over 4 tablespoons melted butter in which 4 tablespoons crumbs have been browned.

HOW TO TAKE 'ASPRO' FOR DENGUE

AT the first signs of the dreaded Dengue don't procrastinate.

Take two to three 'ASPRO' tablets every two hours until the Fever abates and the pain ceases. 'ASPRO' is the greatest Fever Antidote ever given to the world. No other medicine has its anti-pyretic, anti-periodic and anti-germinal propensities after ingestion in the system. 'ASPRO' is far more effective than quinine and there are no harmful after effects. Make certain that 'ASPRO' is always in the home ready for any emergency.

Nothing Equals 'ASPRO' for Dengue & Pneumatism

Selby's Estate, Ingham, North Queensland.
Dear Sirs,
Having used your 'ASPRO' for Dengue Fever and also for Rheumatism, I have found that nothing equals 'ASPRO' for relief from pain.
I was very bad the last week in December, and could not sleep with Rheumatism in my legs. A neighbour called to see me, and she told me that 'ASPRO' Tablets were good for pains. I straightaway sent to the chemist for a box of 'ASPRO', and I can truthfully say that I was surprised at the relief I got after taking the first two 'ASPRO' Tablets—they took away the pains and I could sleep of a night. I took three Tablets a night for four nights, and they relieved me, and now I am as well as ever.
Yours faithfully,

'ASPRO' Works Wonders for Malaria

Gladstone, Queensland.
Gentlemen,
I think it is up to me to let you know how I have benefited by 'ASPRO'. Ever since 1910 I have been a sufferer to MALARIA FEVER, having contracted same in Rhodesia, German East Africa and the Straits Settlements.
I came to Australia from the latter country five years ago, and for the first two and a half years was continually in hospital in Victoria and New South Wales. On arriving in Queensland, a friend advised me to try 'ASPRO'. I did, and it has worked wonders. I still continue to get slight attacks of Malaria, but And if I take a few 'ASPRO' Tablets and hot lemon water, and rest a few hours I am quite O.K. again. I wouldn't be without 'ASPRO' for anything and always carry a box about with me. I can thoroughly recommend them to anyone suffering from the same malady.
This testimonial is unsolicited and you may make any use of it that you think fit.
Yours faithfully,

Currency Stabilisation In United States

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. (Reuter).—Testifying before the House of Representatives Finance Committee, Mr. Henry Morgenthau, Secretary to the Treasury, today strongly urged the renewal of emergency powers covering the stabilisation fund and dollar devaluation, which otherwise expire on June 30.

He maintained that power to devalue the dollar had been a "warning to the world that we are ready and able to defend the position of this country in world trade, and to protect American goods from intensified competition in the United States."

Mr. Morgenthau refrained from specifically recommending the renewal of emergency powers authorising the purchase of newly-mined silver, but drew attention to the fact that these expire on June 30, and that under the proposed Bill they will be extended until January 15, 1941.

RESERVE WEAPON

Urging renewal of Presidential authority to change the gold value of the dollar, Mr. Morgenthau made it clear that the Administration does not intend to change the dollar unless an emergency arises, but he strongly favoured retention of this power as a "reserve weapon."

Mr. Morgenthau asserted that it would be unwise for the United States to "tie her hands" by permanently fixing the gold value of the dollar at a time when no other important country had taken such an action. He said that the fact that the United States kept the gold value of the dollar through international monetary disturbances in the past five years should be an adequate assurance that the Administration did not desire, nor intend, to alter the gold value of the dollar, except under circumstances clearly demanding such action.

SILVER BUYING

Another message says that an amendment to the Treasury Appropriation Bill designed to limit silver buying by the Treasury to newly-mined domestic silver was defeated in the House of Representatives today by 155 votes to 135.

It was approved earlier by a standing vote 130 to 128, but this was reversed by a subsequent teller vote.

The amendment was proposed by Representative Taber, a Republican, who alleged that the United States has been paying for the Sino-Japanese and Spanish wars as a result of her foreign silver purchases.

War Speeds Up Industry In Fukien

FOUCHOW, Mar. 1 (Central).

—The war has accelerated industrial development in Fukien province. With the encouragement and assistance of the provincial government noticeable progress has been made in the machine-making, cotton, paper, sugar and other important industries.

Mine machine workshops in Fouchow have been amalgamated into a big factory and removed to the interior of the province. With the employment of scientific methods this factory is turning out new types of farming implements, communication instruments and other machines. A new invention is the charcoal lamp.

Mr. Yen Chia-tu, Fukien Commissioner of Reconstruction, who inspected the factory is well pleased with its manufactured articles, and the Fukien Provincial Government will extend a big loan to it for further development.

Weaving and textile factories in Fouchow, Nantai, Kiangchow and elsewhere are working day and night to turn out enough cloth for the wartime demand. The Textile Improvement Office has decided to raise $1,000,000 as capital for loans to various weaving factories to boost their business. It is also planning to open a big dyeing factory.

VEGETABLE-OIL LAMP

The Vegetable-Oil Lamp Factory has perfected a kind of vegetable-oil lamp, which is enjoying a widening market. The Provincial Department of Reconstruction is planning to make use of its equipment for the manufacture of canned goods and other industrial products.

The difficulty involved in the import of sugar has given chance for the promotion of the native sugar industry. A Hwa Hsing Sugar Refinery has been established by Fouchow, sugar merchants in the district of Nantai. Refined sugar will be turned out in large quantities shortly.

The paper industry has gained much impetus through the efforts of the Fukien Provincial Department of Reconstruction while the match, dry battery, alcohol, soap and tooth brush industries have reaped big profits during the past year.

WHEAT CONFERENCE

LONDON, March 1 (BWS).—The Secretary of the World International Wheat Conference states that on April 13 the Preparatory Committee will reconsider a draft agreement for an International Wheat Scheme, in view of instructions received from various governments.

Representatives of exporting countries are asking their governments for authority to take part in negotiations on an export quota and other figures, which, it is desired, should be included in draft before the Preparatory Committee suggests a time and place for the proposed International Wheat Conference.

NUTRITIVE VALUE

Fresh v. Stored Food

A question posed by the British Food Investigation Board to the Medical Research Council and dealt with in the Board's report for 1937, was: "Is food stored by modern methods as nutritious as fresh food?" The answer is inconclusive, but generally speaking, it is favourable to the claims of stored food.

It is pointed out that there is still so much to be learnt about food and nutrition that no categorical reply can be given. Many years of work on large groups of people would be necessary and even then results might not be conclusive. Nevertheless, chemical composition of food stored by modern methods can be shown to be little changed, and, in fact, stored foods may well be superior to food technically fresh but in reality stale. Moreover, experiments have been made on animals which have been fed solely on stored foods, and have proved to be satisfactorily nourished.

Progress has been made in the gas storage of fruit. This has been highly successful in the case of apples and pears and is now being applied to other fruits. Experiments have shown that strawberries can be preserved for a period in this manner.

"Supermen" Paid At Clerk's Rate

To be a successful aerodrome manager a man requires to have the qualifications of a superman—or the Archangel Gabriel—at a clerk's rate of remuneration, according to speakers at the annual conference of the Aerodrome Owners' Association in London recently.

Captain H. J. Andrews, airport manager at Liverpool, said that these qualifications are required:—Sound knowledge of air traffic control, communications, radio and meteorological services; ability to read architects' and engineers' drawing and plans; elementary knowledge of land survey and of methods of inspecting buildings and maintaining land drainage; and knowledge of the requirements of the surface of an aerodrome.

LEGAL ABILITY

The manager should also have business ability, be a practical office administrator, know the legal liabilities of the aerodrome owner, understand relevant Acts of Parliament, and be conversant with the Insurance and Air Navigation Acts, etc.

Captain Winters (Bristol) said that the Archangel Gabriel could perhaps fulfil all the requirements.

Mr. W. Frank Davison (Merseyside Airport) said that often a superman was needed for the job. The salary offered was usually comparable with that of a clerk—about £300 to a year. Another speaker said that a man with the attainments outlined was worth £2000 a year in the commercial field.

REHABILITATION OF KWEIYANG

KWEIYANG, March 1 (Central).—The Kweichow Provincial Government is laying down plans for rehabilitating Kweiyang, the provincial capital, after the devastating Japanese air bombings recently.

Mr. Wu Ting-chang, Chairman of the Kweichow Provincial Government, had a conference with the managers of various banks on Monday when measures for rehabilitation were thoroughly discussed.

EXCHEQUER RETURNS

LONDON, March 1 (BWS).—Exchequer returns show that the total of ordinary revenue amounts to £800,165,337, against £782,570,464 at corresponding date of last year. Income tax and surtax have yielded £320,943,000 together, against £288,170,000 a year ago. National defence contribution which is estimated to give £20,000,000 in the full year, stands at £18,220,000.

Total expenditure, less self-balancing items and sinking funds, is £847,110,404, compared with £774,354,161 at corresponding date of 1938.

Kwangtung's Agricultural Activities Reviewed

WARTIME AGRICULTURAL ACTIVITIES OF KWANGTUNG, under the direction of the provincial bureau of agriculture and forestry, were reviewed by Mr. D. Y. Lin, director of the Bureau.

Mr. Lin revealed to "Central News" that the head office of his bureau has since last October moved into the interior, but to further strengthen wartime production work the bureau has established sub-offices at Teling, Loting, Suikai, Holkon, Linhsien and other places throughout the province.

During the past four months, Mr. Lin has been busy travelling from one place to another supervising the work of these sub-offices.

Referring to the food problem of Kwangtung, Mr. Lin said it is really a national problem, for what Kwangtung imports to make up for her annual deficiency constitutes almost 70 per cent. of the entire imported for the whole country.

Mr. Lin remarked that Kwangtung has been importing foreign rice to the extent of approximately 8,000,000 piculs per year, distributed principally for the Canton delta region and the Swatow region.

Canton with its population of 12,000,000 people took a large part of this and used to require 10,000 piculs per day or approximately 3,650,000 piculs per year.

This population of 12,000,000 people, however, have since last October migrated into the interior, and are being taken care of in the different local districts with native rice, less white and palatable but more nourishing.

The authorities, in promoting the extensive use of native rice, used to have much difficulty in finding ways and means of transporting it to Canton, but now this difficulty does not exist any more for the migration has solved it.

Asked about the food supply in the interior, Mr. Lin said that Kwangtung has had two bumper crop years. There is plenty of rice stored up in the interior districts of not only Kwangtung but also Kwangsi and Hymen.

NEW MEDICAL COUNCIL PLEA

Age Limit And Right Of Appeal

The Medical Practitioners' Union recently issued a memorandum on the constitution and functions of the General Medical Council, in which it suggested that an entirely new body should be set up to exercise such control over the discipline of registered medical practitioners as the State might require. Half the members would consist of directly-elected medical practitioners and there would be an age limit of 65.

Copies of the memorandum have been sent to Mr. Chamberlain, Lord Maugham, the Lord Chancellor, Mr. Walter Elliot, Minister of Health, and members of Parliament.

It gives an analysis of the ages of the members of the Council, and states that the exact ages of 30 were obtained from "Who's Who," but that the others did not give the information, "possibly because they would rather forget their ages."

"ELDERLY GENTLEMEN"

The average age for the whole Council is stated to be 67.7, which is described as a low rather than a high estimate. The oldest member is 83 and the youngest "a mere 39."

"It is quite impossible," according to the memorandum, "for these elderly gentlemen really to understand the conditions under which the general practitioner of to-day has to work."

Dealing with criticisms of the educational deficiencies of medical practitioners, the memorandum states that most medical men believed there should be only one portal of entry into the profession.

The standard adopted by some examining bodies was very much inferior to that of others, and the lowest standards might be too low. The position required investigation, and many people were convinced of the need for a standard examination.

"INFAMOUS CONDUCT"

Referring to the Council's conception of "professional crime" and "infamous conduct" the memorandum states that the punishment, removal of the practitioner's name from the register, was too harsh in many cases.

The Union recommends that a committee, representative of all interests, be set up to consider and report on the steps necessary to bring a one-portal system of medical qualification into being.

It suggests that there should be transferred to the new body all powers of discipline at present possessed by the General Medical Council and the Minister of Health, under the National Health Insurance Acts.

From decisions of this body it is recommended, there should be a right of appeal to the appropriate court on both questions of fact and questions of law and by way of rehearing.

Two-hundred Italian families were repatriated from Corsica on the night of Feb. 27, in accordance with the recent provisions by which Italians living abroad are encouraged to return home.

PERFECTING CONSCRIPTION IN CHINA

CHUNGKING, Feb. 28 (Central).—The twentieth month of the Sino-Japanese War found China busily engaged in one of the most important tasks necessary for her protracted war of resistance—that of perfecting conscription, so that more and better soldiers will be recruited, trained and sent to the battlefield.

Based mainly on Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's message on Jan. 10, in which he emphasized the building up of a new Chinese army that must be symbolic of the nation's determination and strength to struggle ceaselessly for independence, this nationwide conscription campaign is being carried out under the Conscription Bureau of the Ministry of War, the Political Training Board of the National Military Council, and many other associated and subordinate organs.

The keynote of China's new conscription law is embodied in three words: simplicity, equality and discipline. To carry out these objectives, the Government has reformed the conscription system, and has taken steps to encourage conscription service.

PAST EXPERIENCES

Experience shows that, in the past, no less than 63 per cent. of the nation's soldiers were recruited from the peasants, 24 per cent. from the workers, while the remaining 13 per cent. were business men and others. With the promulgation of a Central Executive Committee order that all Kuomintang party members, government officials and public service men should set an example by sending their sons and other male members of their families to the army, China's new soldiers will be henceforth proportionally recruited from all classes and all occupations.

The newly reorganized Conscription Board of the Ministry of War, which has General Chen Tse-jen as its director, has dedicated itself to the pursuance of a four-point programme which calls for simplicity and efficiency, more widespread propaganda, better treatment

MAGISTRATES RESPONSIBLE

The Board has ordered all magistrates to be responsible for enforcing the conscription smoothly and efficiently. In their respective districts, the magistrates are required to visit the villages and towns periodically to make sure that the nation's conscription law is being properly applied.

Meanwhile, the conscription law will also be revised to meet the changing needs of the nation. The Conscription Bureau has the right to investigate and to report the merits and demerits of its subordinates to the supreme military authorities, which will in turn reward or punish the men in question.

Working hand in hand with the Conscription Bureau is the Political Training Board of the National Military Council which is entrusted with all propaganda activities on conscription. Headed by General Chen Cheng, Vice-Minister of War, the Board is planning a propaganda drive in Szechwan which will call for the mobilization of 2,500,000 students to utilize their winter vacation by going into the country to spread the gospel of China's resistance and to win the whole-hearted co-operation of the country people.

The official Soviet News Agency "Tass" announces that the Soviet Government has donated five million francs to the aid of the Republican Spanish Refugees in France, and that the money was handed to Ambassador Pascua Y. Martinez in Paris.
